Presentation of the Will G. Farrell Public Service Award & Agents of the Year Awards

Keynote Speaker: Eleanor Johnson, CPA, CLU, CGMA, has been in the insurance industry for 36 years, including roles as an insurance company executive and as a founding partner and major shareholder of a national brokerage firm. She is known for her leadership skills in working with clients and their advisory team to make complex planning concepts understandable. Her presentation, "The Conversation BEFORE the Conversation" will show you how to create a common dialogue that uncovers client priorities and motivates them forward.

Guest Speaker: Kevin Mayeux, Chief Executive Office of NAIFA, oversees the NAIFA headquarters and manages relationships with industry companies as well as governmental legislators and regulators. He has been in association management for over 25 years, including serving as the executive director of a statewide trade association and CEO of an international individual membership society.
